Bible Learning Activities Packs

INTRODUCTION

Hi and Welcome to the beginning of what will become at least 800 Bible Learning activities to plug into any existing curriculum...

...including yours!

My purpose in making the various Bible Learning Activity Packs is to provide resources that can be added to any Sunday School curriculum that needs a bit of refreshing, not necessarily complete replacing.

- Be sure to sign up for the CLAMentral Regulars newsletter on the Home page at clamcentral.com. BLA Pack updates will be listed in the newsletter and also on the Updates page found at clamcentral.com/updates.
- The various activities are not categorized by age-level nor assigned to any particular Bible story. You know your students; you know what stories and activities are right for them.
- Following this page is a list of topics with suggested Bible learning activities.
- See the various sample pages below to get an idea of the typical instructions that come with each lesson activity.

You can email me with questions and comments at tom@clamcentral.com.

Blessings,

BLA Packs Suggested Topics List

This long list shows topics in bold, each followed by suggested Bible Learning Activities in regular font. The BLA Packs have descriptions of the activities. Rather than adhering rigorously to this list, you'll likely find activities that work with various different topics you plan to teach.

This list will grow rapidly. Some version of it, always kept updated, will appear on the CLAMcentral website, linked to from the Home page.

7-Dot Miracle Bingo!

Print: Letter-size, color, single-sided. One copy makes sixteen Player Cards.* The Player Cards are all exactly the same; the 7-Dot Rule takes care of that.

The 7-Dot Rule: Before the teacher draws the first Teacher Card, the kids each choose seven random spaces (illustrations) on the Player Cards, making a dot on each one of the seven. The dots do not need to be in a row, they can be in any seven of the sixteen spaces. Playing the game, the winner is the first person to mark off all seven dotted spaces.

Prep: Three pages following this one have sixteen Teacher Cards. These are to be cut apart and held in the teacher's hand during play.

Play: Draw the Teacher Cards randomly from your hand. Read each card and show the illustration to the kids. They mark the matching illustrations on their Player Cards. The first kid to mark off seven dotted spaces wins, but don't be surprised if the kids want to keep playing until all have won!

Discuss the items either during the game or just after.

Not here in the Sample Pack. But you can use the next page as a master to make as many as you need!

Kids first mark a dot on seven spaces of their choice.

Sample Pack Fun Fact: You can turn any Bingo game into 7-Dot Bingo, but you can't turn 7-Dot Bingo into a game of regular Bingo.

A game of Bible Wars is a great way to teach your students how to find Scripture references in their Bibles and to get used to using the Bible's table of contents.

Because you can play these games pretty much every Sunday (kids like the challenge), Bible Wars is perfect to play in the last few minutes of your lesson.

PS: There are currently 29 Bible War games available in the Bible Wars Pack; even so, we still have enough coming to more than double the number!

BIBLE WARS!

Avoid becoming spiritually derailed
Be Smart

Simple to play. Two teams vie to look up Bible references as you call them out. First player to find a reference stands up and reads it aloud. The player's team scores one point.

To help the kids who haven't yet developed Bible skills, you might try this rule: Do not allow the same player to answer twice in a row.

We've provided three rounds so losing teams get a second and third chance. Some verses may be repeated—repetition helps kids remember the Bible's table of contents. Play as time permits.

Today's game features smart things Christians can do to avoid being spiritually derailed.

Round One

Matthew 11:29
Exodus 20:8
Matthew 7:24
Matthew 24:35
Exodus 20:3
Matthew 26:41

Round Two

Exodus 20:4
Matthew 6:19-20
2 Corinthians 5:9
Matthew 6:33
Exodus 20:17
Matthew 13:16

Round Three

Matthew 11:29
Matthew 24:35
Exodus 20:3
Matthew 6:19-20
2 Corinthians 5:9
Exodus 20:17

Today's game features verses that contain the word enemy or enemies in most popular versions. The story of Gideon is a good one for this topic.

Round One

Psalm 8:2
Exodus 15:6
Ezra 8:31
Deuteronomy 33:2
2 Chronicles 25:8
Exodus 23:22
2 Samuel 22:18

Round Two

Psalm 18:17
Psalm 44:11
Luke 10:19
1 Corinthians 15:26
Psalm 106:10
Exodus 23:22
Proverbs 16:7

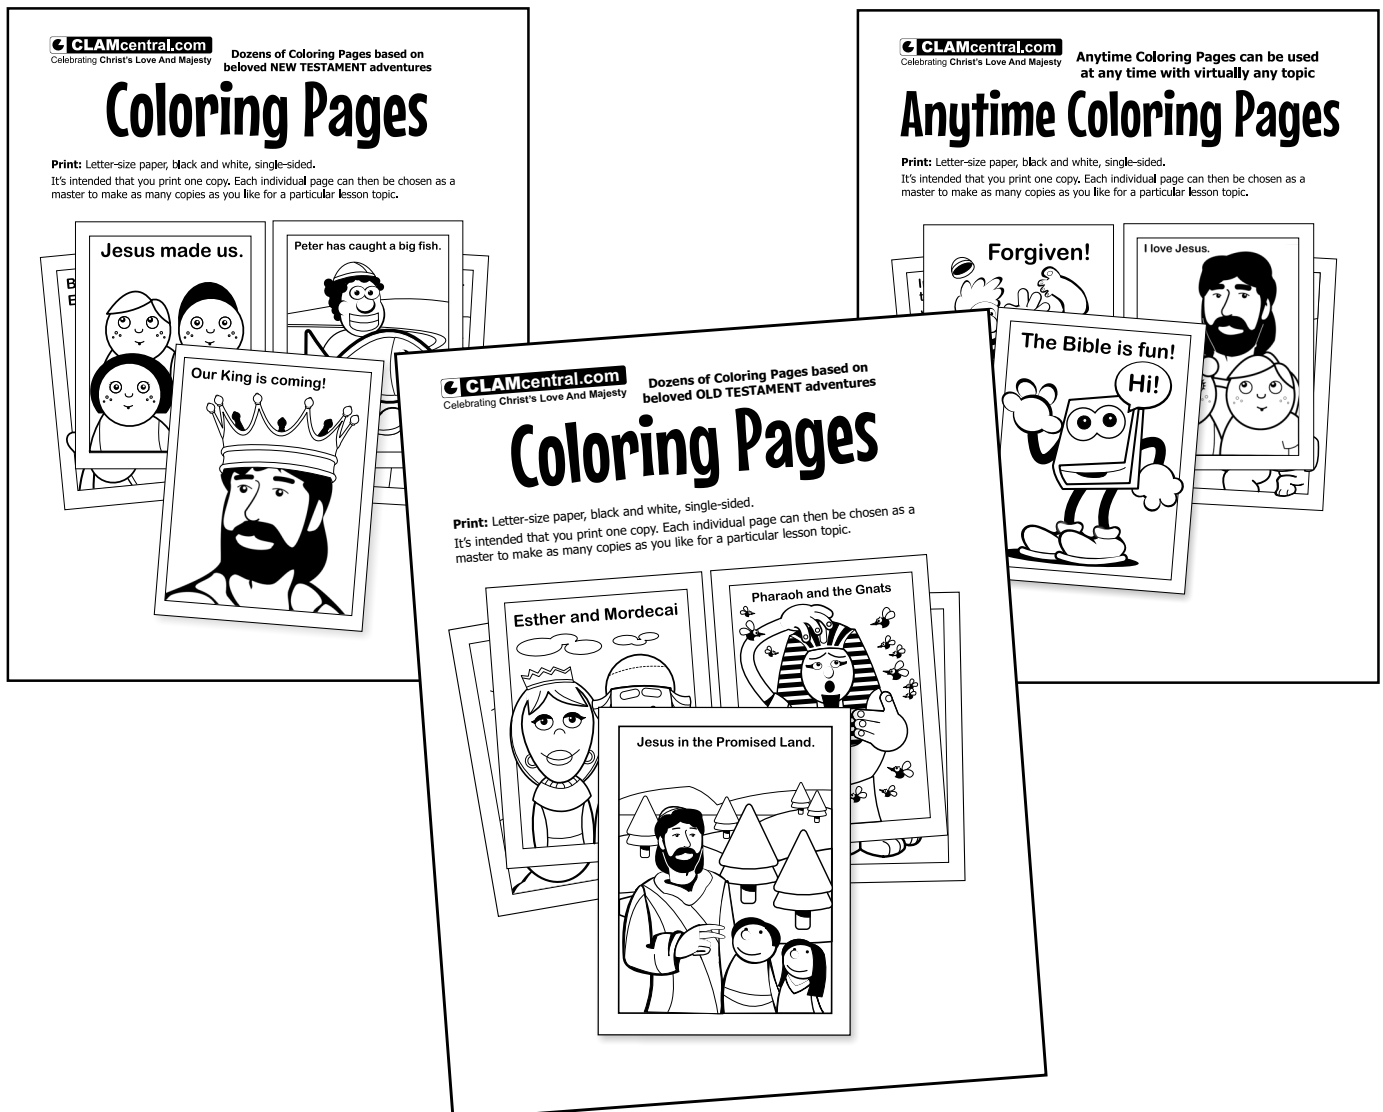

Round Three

Matthew 22:44
Hebrews 10:13
Psalm 89:22
Nehemiah 6:16
Psalm 6:10
Ezekiel 39:27
Judges 8:34

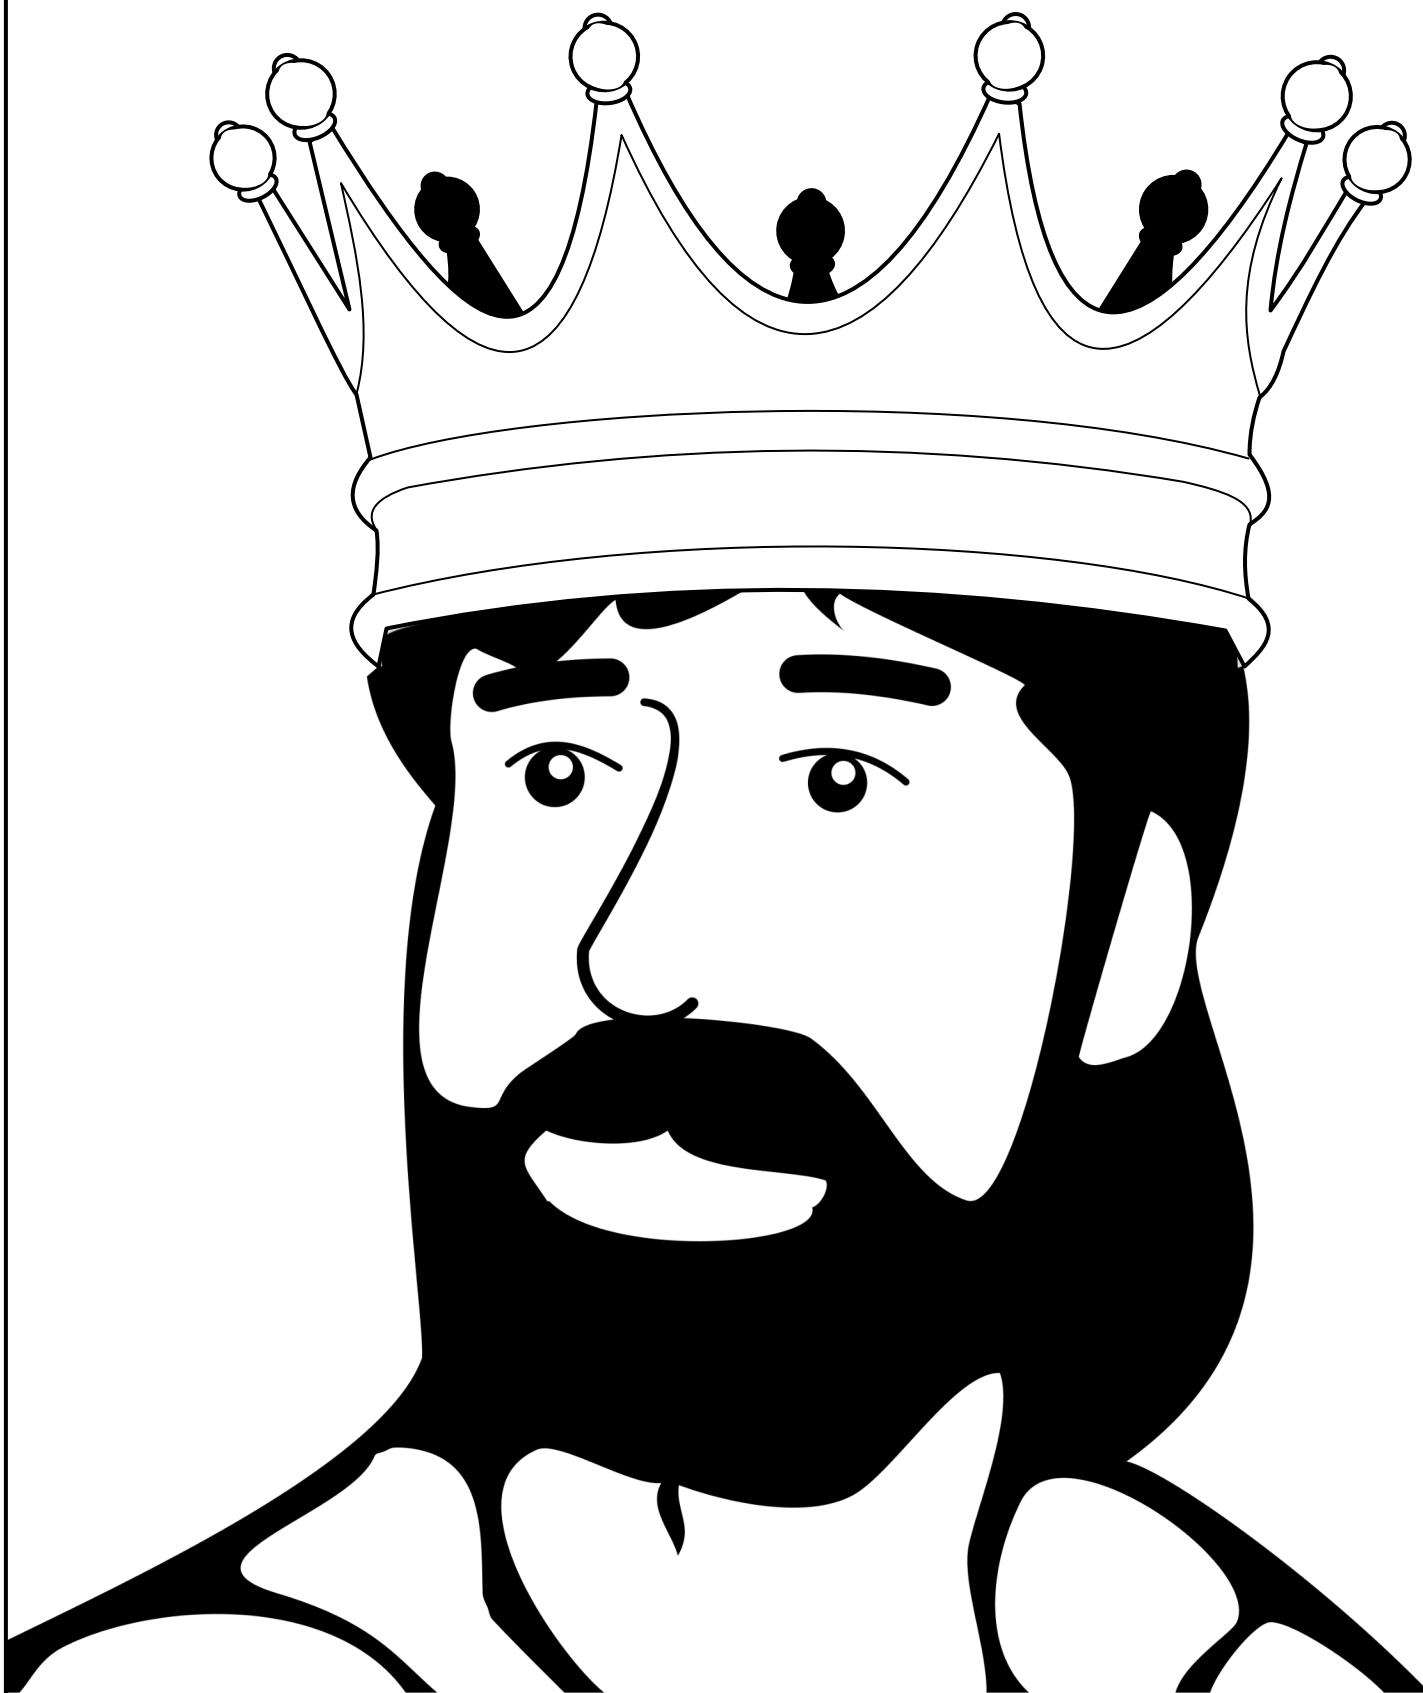

Coloring Pages

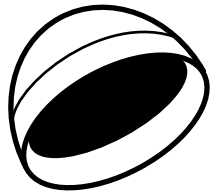

The Coloring Page Pack contains three files: Old Testament Coloring Pages, New Testament Coloring Pages and Anytime Coloring Pages. There are over 130 coloring pages for your learners to enjoy. And if I have to type Coloring Pages one more time I'll be chewing on my crayons.

Incidentally, I've observed over the years that even older kids like to break out a little kid's coloring page (arrgh!) now and then. You can do this at the end of class if there is still time to fill, or even during a snack.

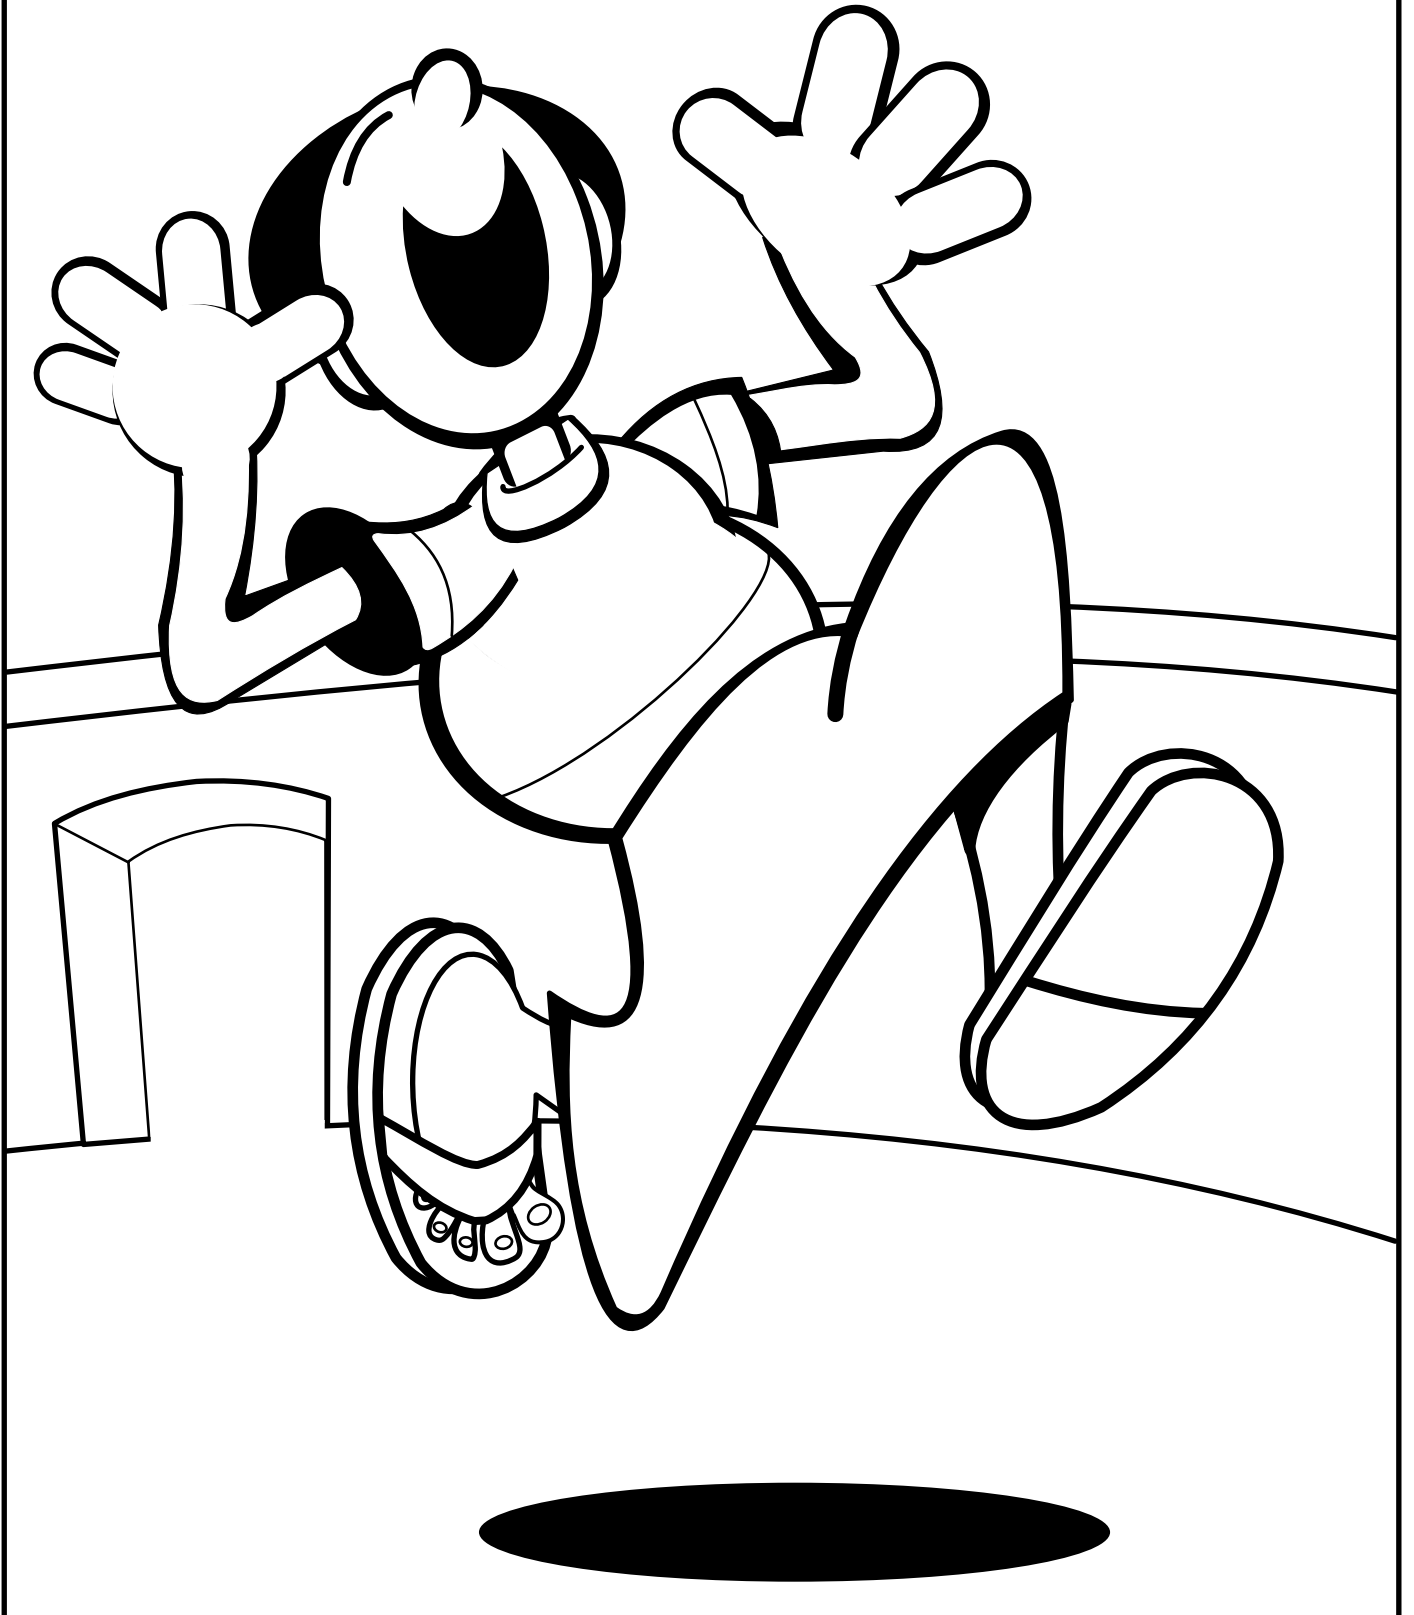

Our King is coming!

Running and leaping and praising God.

Concentration Cards!

Blessings from God

Print: Letter-size paper, black and white, single-sided, on cardstock (or simply cut apart and tape to index cards). Print one copy for each small group of players.

Play: To review six wonderful blessings God gives to us, play this memory game at a table in small groups of two to four players. The players attempt to find matching pairs of illustrations from the story. As the kids play, ask them questions about the cards to help make sure they retain the information.

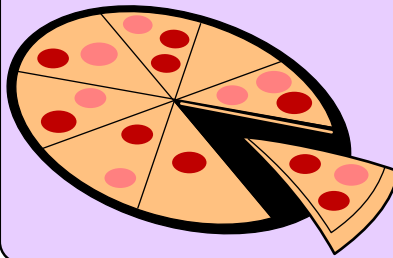

Sample Pack Tip: To make the game more challenging, print the cards two times per small group to double the number of matching pairs--but leave this rule the same: players need only two matching cards to win their turn.

Do It Yourself Comics!

I love drawing DIY Comics Bible stories! Each one teaches a Bible story AND a little bit about drawing cartoons.

You probably already know the DIY part has the kids filling in the faces of some of the people and animals in the various tales. Also, some of the pages have blank cartoon dialog balloons for the kids to fill in with their own thoughts. Those would be good for class discussions.

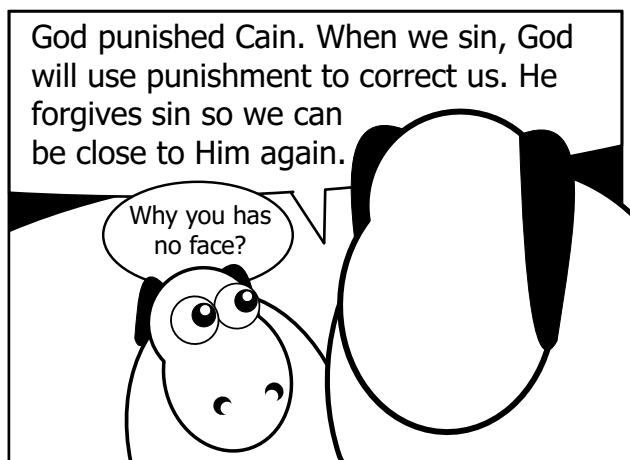

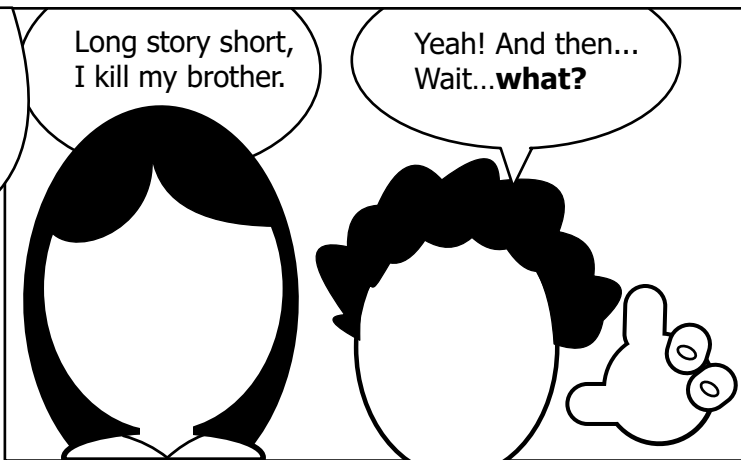

But remember: The DIY Comic version of a Bible story is meant to be funny enough for readers to have smile or two. Always go over the actual Bible story when using a DIY Comic!

And I do fully intend to make many more of these over the upcoming years. Who knows, maybe even a book of them!

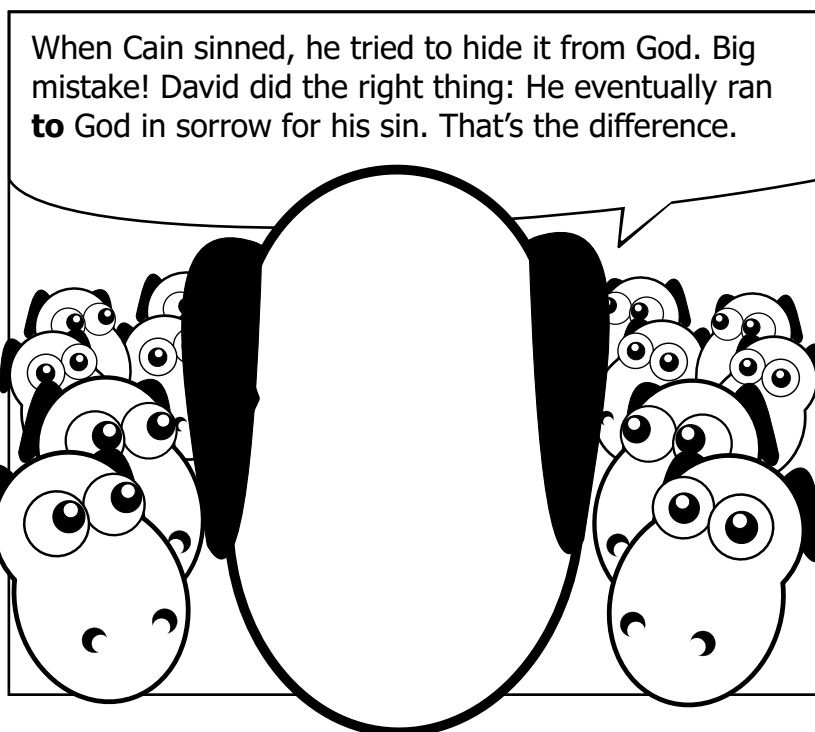

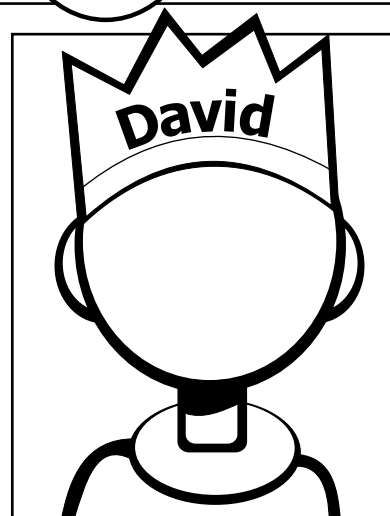

Do It Yourself Comic!

We've drawn the story of Cain and Abel. It's up to YOU to add the faces!

Centuries later, King David of Israel also murdered a man, the husband of Bathsheba. It was a terrible thing, and David was severely punished by the Lord. But unlike Cain, David turned toward God rather than away from Him!

God wants to show us His great love and kindness. It pleases Him to forgive us when we sin. It's best not to sin in the first place, but even our worst sins do not stop God's love!

The story of Can and Abel is in Genesis 4. David's sin is found in 1 Samuel chapters 11 and 12.

Four Corners Fun!

Purpose: To help the children remember the four Bible stories and—for fun and a boost in energy—to get them up and moving about the room.

Print: Print one copy, color, single-sided on letter-size paper.

Prep: Tape the following four pages to the walls of your room, near the corners or where kids can easily get to, just over head height so that the kids can stand beneath them. Cut apart the four Teacher Cards. The teacher shuffles and holds these during play.

Play: Explain the rules: Each kid chooses a sign to walk or run to when you give the signal to go. Once everyone has done that, the teacher then draws one of the Teacher Cards. Kids that are standing under the matching sign earn a point. Play as many rounds as you like, letting the kids keep track of their scores. No one is eliminated from the game, unless you prefer to play it that way. Be sure to emphasize the phrases now and then, explaining that the stories tell us much about our Lord and why we celebrate Him.

Meaningful Motions

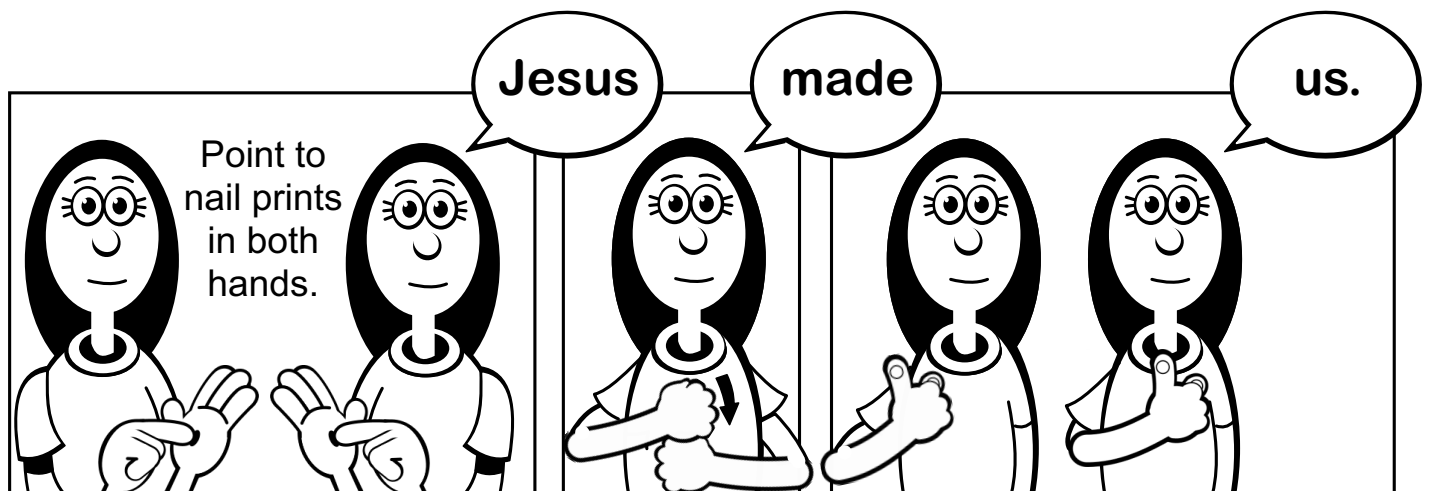

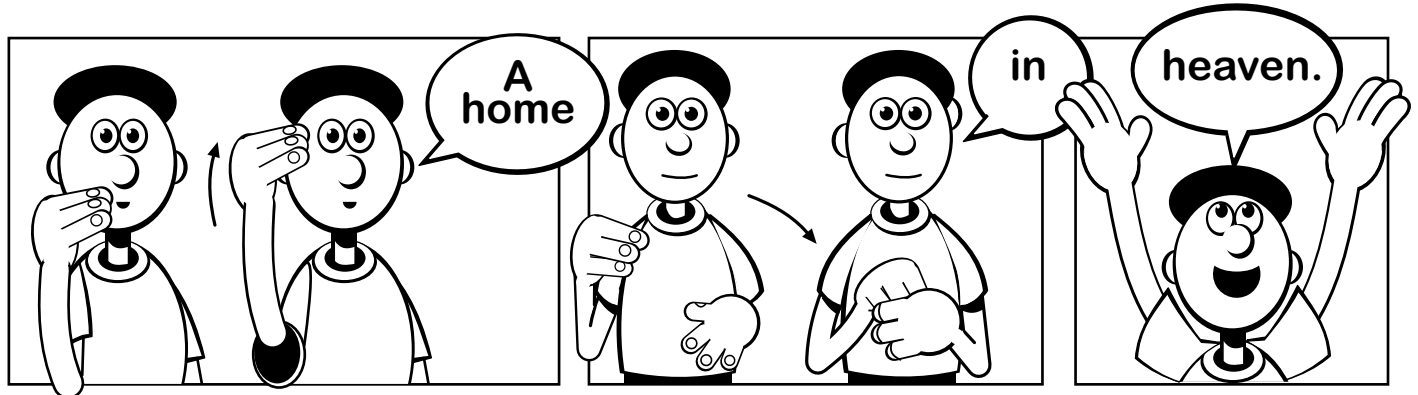

Print: Letter-size paper, black and white, back-to-back. One copy.

Prep: Staple the pages or place in a binder. The Meaningful Motions pages are not intended to be cut part, though of course you can do that.

Perform: A Meaningful Motions activity gets the kids working together actively, and is a nice way to move into your lesson. Typically, have the kids repeat the motions a few times, then let everyone shout the phrase loudly.

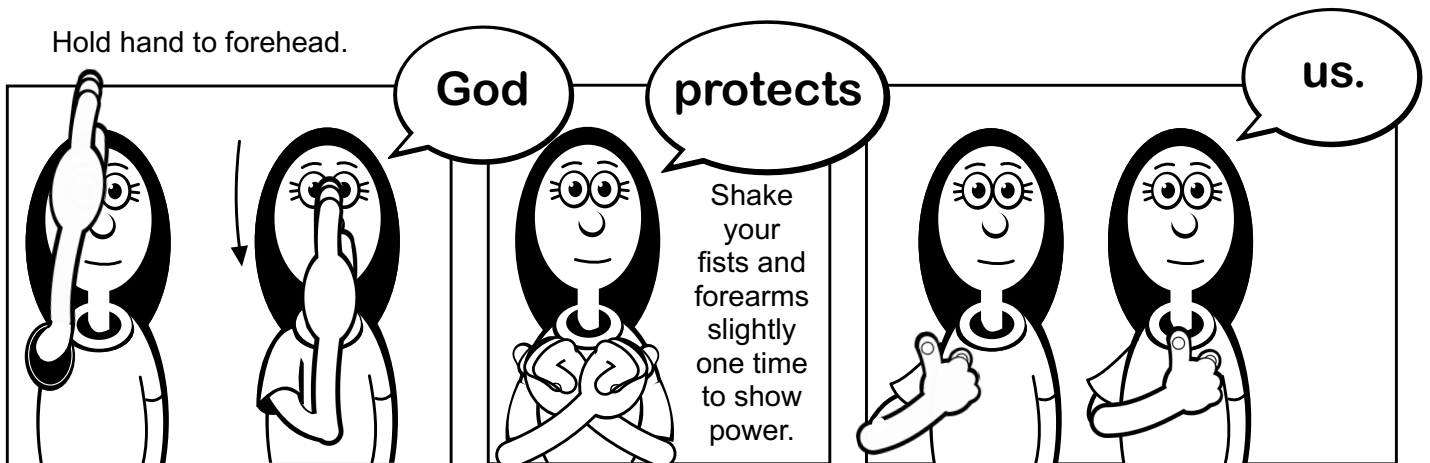

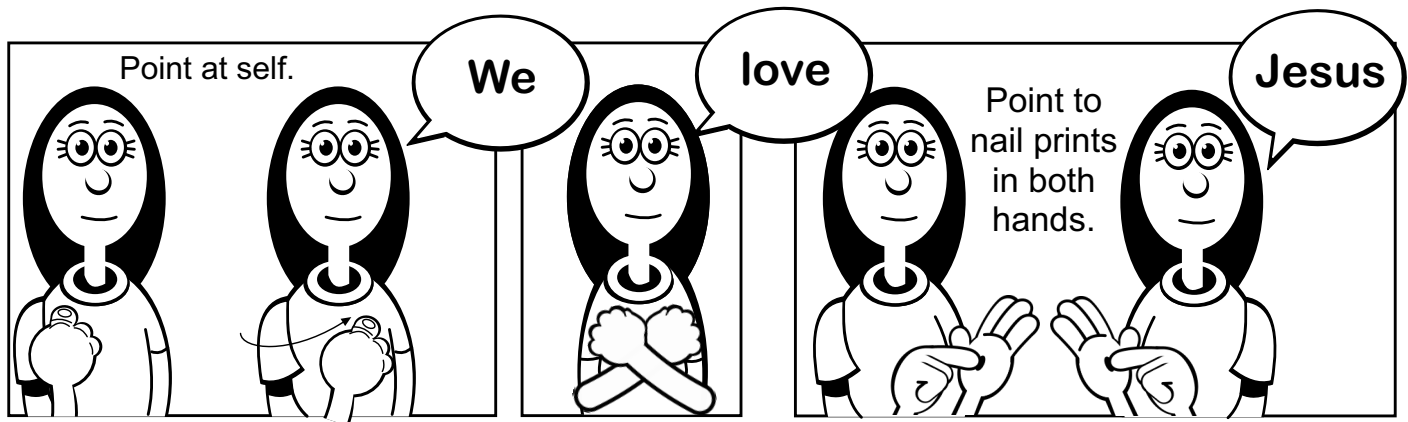

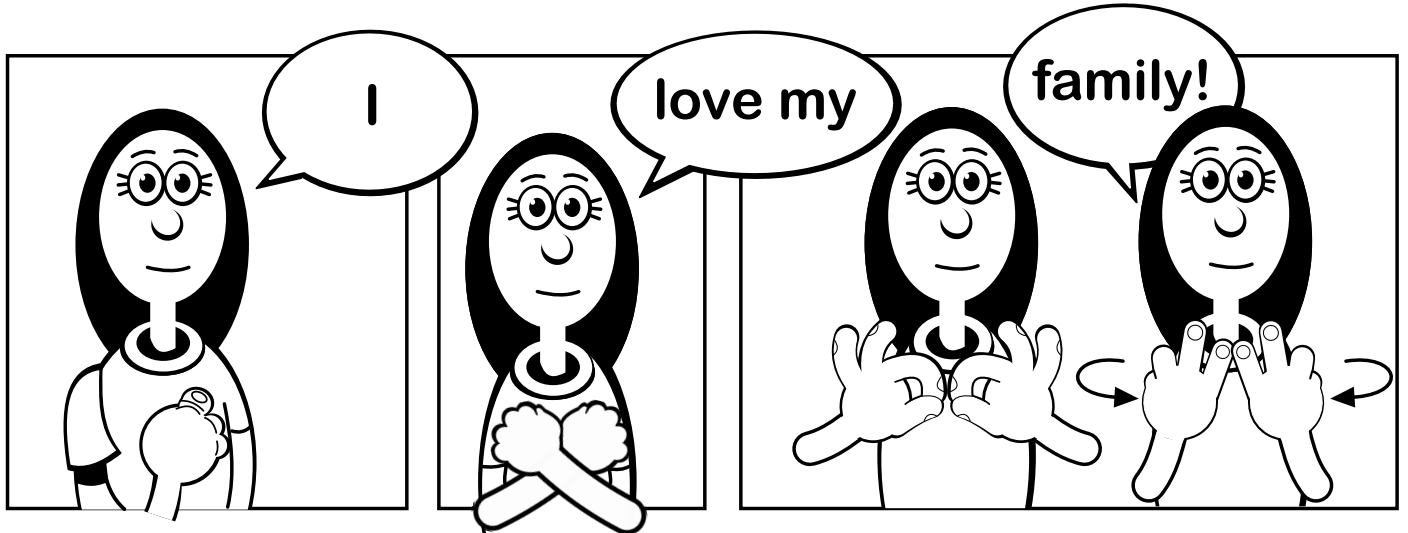

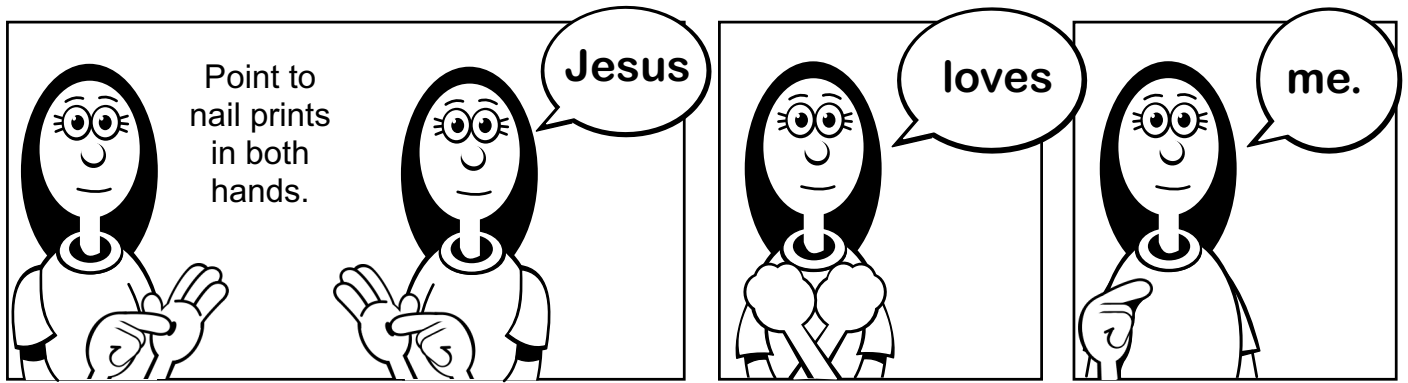

PS: Most of these signs are standard American Sign Language (ASL); some are simplified and a very few are made up by us to replace difficult signs. Feel free to make up your own. And an observation: Children that are early readers tend to enjoy working as a class to make up signs as they recite Bible verses.

We made this sign up

What I call The Bible Learning Activities Project will eventually cover at least 80 stories and themes from the Old and New Testaments, from the beginning of Genesis to the end of Revelation.

That means there is a good and growing chance you'll find activities that you can plug into any given Sunday's lesson taken from the curriculum you are using now. With the BLA Packs you can replace an activity with one your kids will likely enjoy more or you can lengthen a lesson with an additional activity or two.

The CLAMcentral website's Home page will always have the link you need to quickly gain access to these resources and any updates.

The CLAM in CLAMcentral.com stands for Christ's Love And Majesty. His Love is all He says and does for us and His Majesty is who He is: The Son of God, our Lord and Savior.

Thank you for serving God by working with kids! In so doing, you are accomplishing victories that will count for eternity. Awesome.
