

Paul Spreads the Good News!

Thessalonica

Many people became Christians here because of Paul. But some tried to have him and Silas arrested, telling the judges, "These men who have caused trouble all over the world have now come here."

Philippi

Paul cast a demon out of a woman here, for which he was beaten and jailed. God caused an earthquake to open all the prison doors, but Paul remained inside. The jailer asked Paul, "What must I do to be saved?" Paul told him to believe in Jesus. The jailer and his family gave their lives to the Lord.

Corinth

Paul stayed here for over a year, preaching and leading people to the Lord. In a vision, Jesus told Paul that he, Jesus, had many people in Corinth.

Galatia

Paul cast a demon out of a woman here, for which he was beaten and jailed. God caused an earthquake to open all the prison doors, but Paul remained inside. The jailer asked Paul, "What must I do to be saved?" Paul told him to believe in Jesus. The jailer and his family gave their lives to the Lord.

Ephesus

Here, Paul led some disciples of John the Baptist to the Lord. Incredible miracles happened through Paul. New believers who had practiced sorcery burned all their expensive witchcraft books.

Antioch

Barbabas brought Paul to Antioch, where they staid for a year, teaching everyone about the Lord. The word Christians, which means "Little Christs," was coined here.

Crete

Not long after sailing past Crete, Paul was shipwrecked on the island of Malta. There, Paul cured everyone on the island that was sick.

Jerusalem

Paul had several adventures in Jerusalem. One time, he had to be rescued by Roman soldiers from a crowd of rioters beating him for teaching about Jesus.
